THE MODERATOR'S ANNUAL MESSAGE

MOVE FOR FREEDOM

Vice-Moderator, Ladies and Gentlemen:

The ascension of Christ shook the pyramids of the demon world and led away reason and excuses for spiritual darkness which had held men in captivity from the fall of Adam. Christ had met satans' challenge head on and now holds in hand the keys of hell and death. Rev. 1:18.

And only you who dare to follow Christ has been freed from the captivity of bigotry and hatred—today it's a conflict between the captive and the captor —between good and evil—between light and darkness, there is more than one way to be in slavery or captivity, you were born enslaved, a captive of sin.

Men are born rich and born poor but both are born in spiritual poverty — some men have been physically free all their lives, yet we find them slaves to a tradition, a custom or a form of idolatry, some are enslaved as addicts of alcohol, wine whiskey or narcotics. Some men are slaves of immorality, they lie and steal and curse all because they are captives of sin.

"The move for freedom was launched by God when Jesus preached the Sermon on the Mount. But was finished on Calvary — your move for freedom must be made now. If you hate men of another race for any reason, you are a slave — you are in captivity. The man or woman who contends for racial supremacy, be he black or white, is yet in captivity and needs move in repentance unto God. "For Acts 17:26 says God hath made of one earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation. Our foreparents did not come to this land; they were brought here and sold as slaves.

Therefore we are entitled to as much freedom as the constitution pledges. So let us now be obedient to the scripture and pray for such leaders as Fabus Barnett, and Governor Wallace of Alabama whom Satan, the God of this world, has so blinded with political greed that they play politics with the issues of freedom for twenty-million Negroes.

So long as men of any race who happens to be entrusted with power by our creator uses that power to exploit, enslave, or inflict economical, physical, or social hardship upon other races, they are in the same condition as when iniquity was found in satan. He rebelled against the rule of God and in vain tried to dethrone God.

Now God says, love thy neighbor as thyself — whatsoever you would that men should do unto you, do ye also unto them — And when men willfully and wantingly violate those basic laws in ignorance or for selfish purposes, they are themselves in captivity of sin — and needs repent of their transgressions. It behooves us to treat all men with dignity.

For it's not given for you to know who God's elect might be. "Goliath the Phillistine giant was mighty. But God was with David the little shepherd boy and he slew the giant — It's not always the mighty and powerful that is victorious in battle.

"The coney is a small four-footed animal on the order of the rabbit—which inhabits the rocky areas of the world. He has two small front feet, but is quick afoot. One day in traveling the coney came face to face with a cobra snake that preys upon small game for its food, the cobra raised and set himself to strike. But the coney ducked down behind a rock--every time the coney would come up on the rock, the cobra would strike to kill and the coney would duck behind the rock, and the cobra would hit its head on the rock—and that made him all the more furious. The coney would jump and show himself—and the cobra kept striking at him and he kept dodging, so the cobra kept hitting his head till he knocked himself out. "The Christians today should do like the coney. Hide in the rock. "Jesus is a rock in a wearied and troubled land. "In Matthew 6:33, Jesus said if we seek first the Kingdom of God and his righteousness, all good things would be added to us, but we have been fooled by the gospel of Apostasy—and have followed after it in customs and tradition which are not according to God's word — And today we find ourselves in a struggle for Civil Rights. "Which as you see is going to be a bitter fight to the end. "Some folk are not as much concerned about Civil Rights as they are about vengeance. They have an ax to grind, they are out to get even. Those persons who jumped on the freedom bandwagon seeking revenge are still enslaved by hatred. "For God says vengeance is mine. Some say that they love their race — But look at their actions. A well known baseball star of a few years back — went out into an exclusive suburb of New York and bought a house—where nothing lives but white lawyers and doctors—it doesn't show so much love for his race—he got clear away from them, as far as he could.

I am among those who hate every evil, every force, organization and every method that would interrupt the onward march of democracy and stop the forward thrust of human freedom. I hate segregation as you do. I hate crime, ignorance, confusion, war, and bloodshed with every fiber of my being; and my spirit shall not be at ease or my soul rest in peace until the enemies of human kind and these hindrances of democracy shall be eternally destroyed. I repeat, I hate all of the things that are designed to destroy the nation, but I am not ashamed to say that I love this republic with all of the patriotic power that God has given me. I love America. I know full well that she is not perfect, that she has made serious blunders in the past. I know as well as you that every pledge has not been kept and all of the standards and ideals have not been guarded and promoted, but I say again, I love America. I know there are among us traitors, demagogues, corruptors of youth, and killers of American dreams, but I love America. The night riders are still among us, and after a hundred years they still move with faggot and flames. The hooded hosts have profited little from the doctrine of freedom and have not as yet fully heeded the voice of justice. Their ensigns are lifted in every section of the nation, their evil banners still float in the breeze, and they still carry forward their plots and plans to remove certain groups from the nations body politic: but I still say, I love America. I love her lofty purpose in which all of her citizens are ideally included. I love a nation that has not surrendered the initiative, the struggle, and the effort to make all men and women one in the eyes of the law, one before the courts of justice, one in the sacred temple of freedom, and one under the stars and stripes. I love a nation that has set no restriction on the lofty quest of the human soul and has left every man free to worship God according to the dictates of his conscience, a nation that has never decreed the destruction of chapels and churches or wrecked synagogues and cathedrals but has remained silent while men and women through meditation and prayer have erected the invisible stairway from the crusted earth to the courts of glory. I love America, for it is my country. It is the land of liberty, and I can sing freely and with boundless joy that ancient hymn of praise to the country that I love:

My country, 'tis of thee, Sweet land of liberty:
Of thee I sing; Land where my fathers died, Land of the pilgrim' pride,
From every mountain side, Let freedom ring!

HISTORICAL EVENTS OF THE ASSOCIATION

By Rev. C. J. Springfield

The Cedar Grove Missionary Baptist Association was organized in 1869. The annual sessions were held as follows: The first session met with Pleasant Grove Baptist Church, Roxboro. After the operation of three years its name was changed to the Cedar Grove, with the first Moderator, Rev. W. P. Martin; Secretary, Freeman R. Howard; (2nd) Moderator, Rev. Mat Wooden. Others following: David Johnson, Elijah Jones, Rev. Nellie Cousins, Fred Cousins, Rev. A. R. Satterfield; in 1884 he was succeeded by Rev. Alfred G. Graves at River Zion Baptist Church. Secretaries: (1st) R. G. Raglan, (2nd) J. H. Lyon, (3rd) Rev. Streets. Rev. Graves served as Moderator from 1884 to 1904. At Mount Zion Baptist Church in 1904 Rev. Sandie Wade succeeded Rev. A. G. Graves as Moderator. Vice, Rev. K. Dixon. Rev. Wade served as Moderator from 1904 to 1905. He was succeeded by Rev. William Henry Harrison. Vice-Moderator for Rev. Harrison was Rev. A. L. Johnson. Rev. Harrison was Moderator from 1905 to 1910. Rev. Harrison was succeeded by Rev. C. J. Springfield; Vice, Rev. Charles W. Crutchfield, C. P. Williams, G. A. Curry. Rev. Springfield served from 1910 to 1923. The present Moderator, Rev. Wm. Warner, succeeded Rev. Springfield at Hammer's Chapel in 1923; Vice, Rev. J. W. Wiley, 1923; Recording Secretary, Rev. J. H. Love; Corresponding, Rev. David Price from 1923 to 1926. Recording Secretary, Rev. David Price; Corresponding, Jas. E. Swann, 1928; Recording Secretary, Jas. E. Swann; Corresponding, D. L. Stokes.

The growth of the Association brought about a division, making the L. and D. railroad the line between the two bodies, namely Cedar Grove and East Cedar Grove. The same was passed on indefinitely at Hammer's Chapel in 1885, with the spirit of harmony and brotherly love.

The educational movement was started at Roxboro in 1880, namely the Academy, running with success until 1893. It was under the leadership of R. G. Raglan. The building was rented for public school purposes for a number of years. Re-opened in 1921 by the Association in a new expensive building under the leadership of Rev. T. H. Lea until 1929. Being unable to cope with the State's educational methods we were forced to close. After some consideration the Association made Shaw University its educational objective. But many good things have been done through this association. In 1936 we purchased a tent at a cost of $255.00, that will seat about 1,500 people.

PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL ADDRESS

"Have Confidence Young People, It's Your Tomorrow"

Never before has the demand been greater for the right kind of training for those who will be our leaders of tomorrow. I won't hesitate to say these boys and girls here today are already experiencing one of the central factors in getting started as leaders.

Their minds are young and they are in the process of getting a good education. I say this because education is the backbone of individuals who prepare themselves for service.

If you have the know-how to do a job and can produce, no one can take away the training you have received and you can better prepare yourself for that job ahead.

Let me tell you this—be ever mindful, regardless to how much education you have, how confident or ambitious, you are to lead or whatever you want to achieve, you will not realize your personal strength until you have acknowledged, as I have, that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the Living God. This experience will enable you to know how to handle success and at the same time stay humble and be able to get along with all mankind—this, is a job within itself.

Get the necessary ingredients to grow up in life and make your self successful, but seek ye first the Kingdom of God and all of its Righteousness and all His Goodness will be added unto you.

These things will help you as you go along life's pathway to challenge new blood, to strengthen the stream of life. Young People Have Confidence, It's Your Tomorrow.

I rejoice in seeing our young people given a chance in various churches and Sunday School to do service, and put on God's Program.

If we train our children in the way they should go, we wouldn't have to worry about them later.

An example of success today can be sighted in this building. Somebody scuffled and prayed and had the ambition to say put this project in focus. We rejoice today for the success which has been revealed. But there is still more room for our youth for they, too, can be successful. If our churches and Sunday Schools are to grow, we cannot rest on the success of others and the progress others have made. If we sit still and become satisfied to live with the success of the present we will find ourselves living in the past, and the present-day success will soon become past. So you see, it is a connecting link for us to continue to train our youths for the work of tomorrow.

There are other values, goals and awards we have not fully achieved in our churches and Sunday Schools that we want our youth to take part in . . . that is the instructions we give them and the teaching they receive. But you know, one of the things that hinders the youth . . . our adults who stand in their way. We are quick to say — we have done this and that way and if we try to change, it will not work. But have you tried?

We might as well get ready for changes and prepare ourselves for them. Many of us don't like to accept changes and new ideas. Some of us go as far back as to say—our grandparents did it this or that way and it is not right to change.

Some of our minds are like cement—mixed up and permanently set until we dare offer a change, and if we set up new ideas we will be setting up stumbling blocks in our own way. But to you young people who are to carry on the Christian leadership of tomorrow, It's Your Tomorrow Have Confidence. Don't be discouraged over stumbling blocks that might stand in your way. I have met them and you will meet them. But there will be times in life you and I both will suffer defeat. You will meet with many obstacles, but there will be no cause for alarm. Few people accomplish their goals who haven't somewhere along the path fallen down. This is the point I want you to get. You may fall or stumble many times but don't give up, sometimes obstacles or stumbling blocks can lead you toward the stepping stones of higher plains. So continue to go to Sunday School and church and have confidence in yourself that you will excell — know that it is your tomorrow.

Again don't be discouraged, look on the brighter side of life. I am suggesting that if you don't excell, or win first place, it is an honor sometimes to take second or third place and come up through the rank. It will make you stronger and will encourage you to work harder for higher qualities; and having accomplished this you will have done more than the person receiving the highest place first. So don't mind coming up through the ranks of your duty, because all of this will enable you to take advantage of all available opportunities in preparing yourself for work. Have Confidence Young People, This Is Your Tomorrow.

This confidence must be accomplished by another high important quality, the desire to improve our relationship with our fellowman without saying this world owes me this or that. This world owes us nothing. But I tell you, the world gives more generously rewards for our efforts. This holds true from a Biblical stand point. An example—The parable of the bread cast upon the water. The more we cast out the more we receive in return.

Contributing to the good of everyone as well as yourself is a great joy, particularly when contributing to the poor. There is a great joy which comes back to us in sharing with our fellowman.

Let no one fool you, there are no sums of money large enough to buy this joy from you. It can't be bought with dollars and cents, but can enrich your life in ways which will never show in your bank account, but will be real income for you while you are rendering service in this life. Life doesn't limit us as we limit life. So young people, Have Confidence, It's Your Tomorrow.

I want to say to you in conclusion, regardless to who we are, the position we hold; work now, today, and do a good job. To you young people who sit under the sound of my voice, have confidence in yourself, It's Your Tomorrow, because you will soon be the present when we who at present are serving shall have passed.

J. W. Martin, President

PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL ADDRESS

Subject — "WHAT SHALL WE DO WITH JESUS?"

Madam Presilent, Ministers, Ladies and Gentlemen:

I'm happy to greet you again in this the fifty-first annual session of the Woman's Convention of the Cedar Grove Association.

In looking over the records of this convention, we find that we have only had five presidents, namely, Mrs. Mary E. Jones, Mrs. E. L. Glenn, Mrs. O. B. King, Mrs. C. B. Wiley and your present servant. Four of the above names have gone to face their maker and make their final report. We feel assured that each of those could say, "I served to the best of my ability, and gave my all to this work." They served well for the records say, "that much good has been accomplished." Yet, time removed them from the field of labor in the same manner in which it will remove you and me; and yet the program must go on. It matters not how these changes come, this work will not cease. It must move onward and upward until God says, "Well Done."

Since our last convention, we have stood with bowed heads and aching hearts in silent grief while the bodies of some of our dear co-workers were lowered into the grave. They will be greatly missed. Sister Mildred Baize will be missed from the finance committee with her quite manners, Sister Willie Barnett will be missed from giving the annual Auditor's report, and Sister Willie Edwards will be remembered for her loyalty to the organization. And there are so many other Sisters whose names I shall not call right now but they are missed from this convention. Yes, we are One Army of the Living God, at whose command we bow, part of the host has crossed the flood and part are crossing now.

Madam president, after having listened to the many testimonies of those whom said, "Jesus is mine, He lives in my Soul." I'd like to know if we have Jesus as we say we have? "What Shall We Do With Jesus?"

Friends and co-workers, let us think seriously on this subject for a few moments, "What Shall We Do With Jesus?"

Jesus is on trial today with the unbelievers and those that seek to find fault with him, just as he was in the Sanhedrin Court before King Pilate. St. John 19:1-19 — At the trial of Jesus, Pilate said, "I find no fault in this man," and wanted to release him. He sent Jesus to Herod trying to shift the responsibility from his own soul upon the soul of Herod, but Herod sent him back to Pilate, after all Pilate still had Jesus on his hands. "What Shall We Do With Jesus?"

It was up to Pilate, it was a great responsibility. A decisive moment, something had to be done. "What Shall We Do With Jesus?" Pilate could have released him and he wanted too, for he knew Jesus was innocent and there was no guilt in him. His enemies could not offer sufficient proof against him to condemn him to death but Jesus was on trial. The mob hated him and wanted to kill him although he had done no wrong. He loved sinners and blessed them, forgiving their sins. He healed the sick, fed the hungry and raised the dead. Why kill him? Because he had condemned their sins, therefore they wanted his life so they cried, "crucify him!"

Pilate sent for a basin of water and washed his hands, but he could not wash the Blood of Jesus off His Hands with water. He tried to compromise with the mob by offering them Barnabas, but no, they wanted Jesus. Pilate's wife even warned him that this man was innocent, but Pilate did not stop them. He let the mob take your Lord and mine, the Savior of Man up on Rugged Golgotha and nail him on a cross between two thieves, they jeered and mocked him until he died. That is What They did with Jesus.

Friends, Jesus is on trial today and I ask you, "What Shall We Do With Him?" Shall we pacify the unbelievers and yield to their request like Pilate did, or shall we stand firmly by our convictions and hold on to the Blood Stained Banner of Christ? Sisters, stand steadfast by your convictions and fight for the cause for which he died. Yes, Jesus is on trial today as never before. The world is watching the Christians. Watching to see what they are doing with this Jesus whom they profess to know and to love. They are watching to see if the professed Christians are standing the test of Christianity and declaring that God is God and Jesus is the Son of God.

Are we doing the same as pilate? Are we giving over to the crowd of unbelievers, such as those whom hath declared that the Holy Bible is a myth, and that God is Dead?

Yes, Jesus is on trial, What Shall We Do With Jesus? He is on trial when duty demands that we go to those less fortunate persons and lend a helping hand. He is on trial when we see somebody's son or daughter or even grown-ups whom have fallen into the quicksands of life He is on trial when we as Missionaries fail to get down off our high seats and reach down and try to guide some way farer on to the Heavenly Road., regardless as to race, creed or color because we know that God is no respector of persons. We can tell them of Jesus the Mighty to Save. We can tell them if they are laden with heavy burdens, Jesus is a burden bearer, for he did say, "Come unto Me, All ye that are weary and heavy laden, and I will give you rest." We can tell them if their problems have become too tangled for them to solve, Jesus knows where and how to solve all problems. We can tell them if they are unrighteous. Jesus said, "I come not to call the righteous but sinners to repentence." What Shall We Do With Jesus?"

St. John 4:6 — One day, Jesus, while traveling through Samaria, being weary sat on Jacob's well to rest. While sitting there a woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus knew that the woman was a Samaritan and she saw that Jesus was a Jew, for she knew that the Jews and Samaritans had no dealing. Jesus also knew that this woman's past life had not been an up-right life, yet, there is no doubt within my mind that Jesus saw great capabilities in that sinner woman. He also knew that he was on trial with some of the people because of his teaching and wondrous works among men. Yes, Jesus talked with that sinner woman and after having talked with Jesus, she became convicted, convinced and converted and ran into the city, saying, "Come and see A Man that told me All I've done, is not this the Christ?" Yes, she carried the news of his arrival into town and many people believed her story. That Is What She Did With Jesus. I ask you, "What Shall We Do With Jesus?"

Dear co-workers, it's up to us to prove and to convince the unsaved, the back-sliders and the unbelievers that we have Jesus in our lives and he is our Savior. He is on trial, "What Shall We Do With Him?"

One thing for certain, we surely cannot take Him in an unclean place—for He will not dwell there. When Jesus comes in, satan's filth must be cleaned out.

Oh, shall we Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus as soldiers of the cross, lift high His Royal Banner, We shall not suffer loss. Take the Name of Jesus with you as you go, proving by your conduct before the world what you are doing with Jesus. Oh! Take the Name of Jesus with you, child of sorrow and woe, it will joy and comfort give you; take it then wherever you go.

There is so much yet to be accomplished, so let us Rescue the Perishing, Care for the Dying, Snatch them in Pity from Sin and the Grave, Weep o'er the Erring ones, Lift up the Fallen, Tell Them of Jesus The Mighty to Save.

Rescue the Perishing, Duty Demands it. Strength for thy Labor The Lord will provide, Back to the Narrow Way, Patiently win Them, Tell the Poor Wanderer a Savior has Died.

JESUS IS ON TRIAL

"WHAT SHALL WE DO WITH JESUS?"

Your humble servant,
Mrs. Sara E. Howard

PREFACE

"Dedication" to Our Union Presidents

Many years ago a Christian woman of the New Zion Baptist Church by the name of Mrs. Ella Thaxton, had a dream. She kept having this same dream until this dream troubled her. She then went to the late Rev. C. J. Springfield, and he interpreted this dream for her. He told her this dream meant for her to organize something for women.

She then continued in prayer still divinely inspired. She called a group of women together at New Zion. Mrs. Shepherd and Mrs. E. C. Warner, along with a lot of other women that were in this organization. And thus what is now known as The Union was formed to meet every fifth Saturday and Sunday.

It moved on successfully with Mrs. Thaxton serving as president. Later Rev. Springfield, Rev. C. P. Williamson, Rev. Mason and Rev. A. R. Johnson decided it was too much for the ladies to have to travel far and near. Staying in stations all night. So they called a meeting at the Smith Chapel Baptist Church and voted that the Union would be divided into four parts as the Upper Union, the Upper Middle Union, the Cedar Grove Union, and the Lower Union with each church going to the Union closest. The Unions still move on with success and unity. It is now led by four capable women.

The Upper Union is led by a Christian woman with Christian principles and practices, Sister Jennie S. Mills. She has served as President since 1951. She succeeded Sister Leua Wade. Sister Mills' address is always full of advice, love, faith and trust. She is known everywhere for her singing.

The Upper Union has six churches. A scriptural indication illustrating Mrs. Mills is, "Delight thyself also in the Lord and he shall give thee desires of thine heart." The Upper Union is headed by Mrs. E. C. Warner and has seven churches. Mrs. Warner is a Christian leader. Her message is always instructive. The Upper Middle Union bases its daily life around the fourth chapter of Ephesians known as the Union Chapter. Mrs. Warner succeeded Mrs. Millie Slade. A Biblical illustration of her would be "I therefore the prisoner of the Lord beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation where with ye are called."

The Cedar Grove Union is headed by Mrs. Adeline Woods, who succeeded Mrs. Ella Thaxton. Mrs. Woods very humbly leads 38 churches successfully. She is never in too big a hurry to hear someone's testimony and she doesn't believe in quincing the spirit. She will say it is nice to stay up on this mountain, but we must come down. She is fair to all and at the same time preserves dignity. She is known for her hymns. This is Mrs. Woods' Biblical quotation, "Behold how good and how pleasant it is for all brethren to dwell together in unity."

The Lower Union is headed by Mrs. Ruth Atkinson. To know Mrs. Atkinson is to love her. She leads five churches. A scripture indication most fitting her is, "The Lord is my shepherd I shall not want."

These four Unions make up the Convention along with our capable field workers, local missionaries and board of directors. The Convention is led by our own Mrs. C. B. Wiley, who says, "I waited patiently for the Lord and he will incline to me and hear my cry."

All who know these ladies will say life is more inspiring to have known and worked with them. May each of you live long among us and enjoy the blessings which your life service to God and to mankind so richly merit.

Mrs. Lula M. Wiley, Secretary
